Scriptures: Proverbs 23, Philippians 2, Philippians 3, Proverbs 4, Deuteronomy 4, Deuteronomy 6, Deuteronomy 28, 1 Corinthians 13

Notes:

Proverbs 23:26

> Have you given your heart to God?

- Look at who God called Christians in the bible and compare yourself to them.

Philippians 2:19-30

> Saying that the bible has nothing to do with your love and happiness is untrue.

- God is love and gives us joy. He tells us how to love others.
- You have to emotionally care for others. Don't keep church at a distance!
- As a Christian, having emotions does not make you weak. (ex: being sad when someone dies)
- When you have given your heart to God and are excited about the things of God, you can receive (love) others with gladness.

> If you can get tired for the world, you can get tired for the work of Christ.
- When is the last time you stayed up late for God? gave a lot of effort for God?

Philippians 3:1-2
> Define love according to God and not according to what we see.

Proverbs 4:4, 23
> You have to guard your heart.
- Don't let things that you are not supposed to like suck you in.

Deuteronomy 4:1-
> Hijacked Faith = People depend on psychology to tell them about the soul.
- Do what God says! Don't add things that are not there.

Deuteronomy 6:1-5
> Do you love the Lord with all your heart?

Deuteronomy 28:1-6, 15-19, 28, 45

> Not loving God and doing what he says has consequences.
- God is in control of everything.
- Make sure you have a good attitude in everything you do for the Lord. Serve God with gladness.

> When God says give him your heart, he also wants you to give him control over your emotions

1 Corinthians 13:3-7

> If you have the love of God, you can deal with things.
- If you have given God your heart, you should be a nice person.
- People who cannot do God's work is too busy seeking their own.
- Don't not love and expect God's love.
