Church Notes

Sunday Morning Oct. 26, 2014

Scriptures: Matthew 13, 2 Timothy 3,
2 Timothy 1, 2 Corinthians 1

Notes:

- Be mindful of prayer requests.
- Make sure to check in on the progress of prayer requests as well.

Matthew 13:54-58

- When people are not right, counsel will not help.
- Selfishness and pride will not allow them to hear from those who love and care for them.
- Some people are biased toward those they know and refuse to give them credit.
- You should want to talk to someone who knows you instead of seeking advice from those who don't know you.

- People are evil! They will lie about the things of the past, but will want to discuss counsel
  - you can't ask for counsel while you are avoiding something.

2 Timothy 3:1-5
- Sometimes things cannot be counseled out of people, they must be saved first.

2 Timothy 1:7
- God gives us power, love, and a sound mind through his spirit
  - His spirit does not give fear, "can't-do's", or hate.
  - If you don't have God's spirit, you are not guaranteed to be stable.

2 Corinthians 1:2
- Our expressed responsibility is to comfort others

- If someone comes to you and they are depressed, you should offer them hope by telling them how Jesus comforts you.

* Hijacked Faith - are things that we must turn to God for instead of psychologist who only prescribes pills to solve our problems.
- Mental instability comes when you do not have a sound mind in God.
  - You cannot help people who reject the help that comes from God.
  - A lot of the times your life is going through destruction because you are ashamed of Christ.
  - Don't apologize for having a godly stance.
