Bible Study

Wednesday Night, November 5, 2014

Scriptures: 1 Corinthians 13, 1 Corinthians 10, Proverbs 3, Numbers 15, Ezekiel 6, Jeremiah 17, Psalm 51

notes:

1 Corinthians 13:3-7

- Charity is kind - If you are a believer, you will be kind and extend yourself to others
- Love is never defined as loving yourself. It's loving others as you love yourself.
- Your attitude and spirit is soundly true.
- People seeking their own will always answer no when asked to do for others
- Bitterness and hatred is not the will of God.
  - There are people who come to church and plan to do evil.
- 7 verse: Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
  - Trusting in God shows that you love God and believe in Him.

1 Corinthians 10:13

> Trust God to make a way.
- you can't try obedience. It is something you give to God.
- You never use obedience to God to manipulate people.

> Are you righteous for God because people say so or because God say so

> Love endureth all things

Video:

(19) Lauren Hill suffering with brain cancer still worried about letting other people down. Despite only having a few weeks to live.
- Most people complain about life when they are suffering.
- Don't be selfish, self-centered, and self-focused that you are not thankful for the things God has already given you.

Proverbs 3:1-

> Make sure your thoughts line up with the word of God.

Numbers 15:37-39

> People who don't obey God and have other things of the world that they are interested in are considered a whore.

- Seek not after your own heart and eyes.

Ezekiel 6:9-10

> God hates a whoring heart. They have departed from God.

Jeremiah 17:7

> Where is your hope?

- If you don't have hope, you don't have love.

Psalm 51

> Be honest with yourself

- Are you true to God?