Church Notes

Sunday Morning, December 21, 2014

scriptures: 1 Corinthians 11, Psalms 28, Psalms 55, Psalms 54, Psalms 57, 1 John 5, Matthew 5

Notes:

- Treating God as if he is not worth anything will come back on you.
- Whether you sit or stand; if you do not live for the Lord, you will go to the same place (hell).
- It's not time for our opinions, it's time for us to submit to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:23

- One day, God will stop asking us to come to him. He will instead cast you into the fire.
- Taking communion should be important to you because it represents the Lord's death.
- When you take communion, take it seriously - do it and do it right!

* Today is the day of salvation *

- You can't always apologize tomorrow. Tomorrow is not promised.

Have you cried unto the Lord?

- Tears do not mean someone is sincere. People cry in their sin and after they sin. Depressed people cry, too.
- If you have problems, you must cry unto God. Stop all pity parties. Just crying is not enough until God answers you.

Psalms 28:1

Psalms 55:1

Psalms 54:1

Psalms 57:1-2

Is God your saviour?

- When you are saved, you care about others being saved, too. You want to be salt and a light to the world.

1 John 5:1-5

- If you love God, you will do what you are supposed to do.

- It does not take more for you to obey his commandments than the next person.
- If you have trouble standing and clapping during church something is wrong with you spiritually.
- Know that what you say has a meaning.

Matthew 5:38-48

-The bible tells us to be perfect, even as our Father in heaven is perfect.
- Treat your enemies good and bless the people that curse you. Pray for people who use you.